QUEEN CITY HARD HIT

STRIKEBREAKERS FLEE FROM MOBS

Attempt to Run Streetcars at Cincinnati Ends In Failure.

CARS STONED AND ONE BURNED

Serious Talk of Going to the Federal Courts For Receiver For the Traction Company on Grounds of Failure to Carry Out Provisions of Its Contract—Mayor Hunt Seeks Arbitration.

Cincinnati, O., May 12.—Serious rioting in different parts of the city followed the attempt made by the Cincinnati Traction company to resume traffic, which has been suspended entirely since noon Saturday as the result of the walkout of its motormen and conductors.

The company brought 230 strikebreakers to this city which had been recruited in Chicago and Detroit. The men marched to the Brighton car barns and somewhat later the city authorities were notified that traffic from the Brighton barns would be resumed. Six cars, manned by strikebreakers, were started out towards Fairmount, a western suburb and four cars toward the city.

One car, containing 20 strikebreakers, was brought to a halt half a mile from the barn by a mob of strike sympathizers. The strikebreakers fled, scared by the threatening attitude of the mob, and the abandoned car was then set on fire. The police allege, by a lot of boys. A fire alarm was sent in and the total destruction of the car prevented.

The two cars going towards Fairmount got to a point a mile from the starting point, when they were stopped by a mob of about 30 men and boys. Rocks commenced to fly and the crews fled. One strikebreaker received a scalp wound and was sent to a hospital. The two cars were partly demolished by the mob.

Motorman Fatally Hurt.

Of the three cars that attempted to reach the lower part of the town, two got no farther than a 158 square foot from the barn; the crews fled and the cars were returned under police protection. The third car got one block from police headquarters and about a mile from the barn when a mob of close to 3,000 men and boys made further progress impossible by taking the controller from the motorman. Bricks were flying from all sides and Charles Weber, the motorman, was hit in the abdomen. He was taken to the city hospital, where he was found to have received a ruptured liver. His recovery is very doubtful. Several other persons in the mob were hit by flying stones and taken to hospitals.

Chief of Police Copelan with a large detail of men succeeded in restoring order after telling the crowd that the car would not be allowed to proceed farther down town, but would be taken back to the barn. So dense were the mobs everywhere and so hostile in their demonstrations that the trip of the car from the barn to a point one mile distant and return consumed over four hours.

There is serious talk of going to the United States court for the appointment of a receiver for the Cincinnati Traction company, on the ground of failure to carry out the provisions of its contract with the city.

HUNT TAKES A HAND

Company Must Arbitrate or Face Court Proceedings.

Cincinnati, O., May 12.—In a communication to Kelsey Schoepf, president of the Cincinnati Traction company, whose employees are on strike, Mayor Henry T. Hunt issued what is practically an ultimatum demanding that the car company submit to arbitration its dispute with its striking employees or face court proceedings for the forfeiture of its franchise.

REV. DR. MANNING

Looks Forward to Union of All Christian Church Bodies.

For the friendly consideration of points of difference it was proposed by representatives of fifteen Christian denominations that in the near future a world conference be held. All Christian churches will be asked to participate in the conference, which will be held in New York city, according to the Rev. Dr. Manning, pastor of Trinity church, New York city, president of the conference. The secretary reported that the project had been brought formally to the attention of cardinals, archbishops of the Roman Catholic church and archbishops of the Eastern Orthodox church and that both approved it.

Arteries Of State Will Be Rebuilt

FOR OHIO HIGHWAYS

Five Millions a Year Will Be Spent For Better Market Roads.

Columbus, O., May 12.—Ohio proposes to spend $5,000,000 annually for market roads. Under the provision of the 11th road law, providing for half a mill levy on the grand tax duplicate of the state, approximately $3,200,000 will be raised. One-fourth of this amount, $800,000, goes directly to the state, to be expended in construction of main market roads. The remaining three-fourths, $2,400,000, will be distributed equally among the 88 counties. Each county, thus, will receive about $27,000. In order to have a say in the manner in which this $30,000 will be expended, the county must raise an equal amount.

GO OVER EMBANKMENT

Six Persons Seriously Hurt In an Automobile Accident.

Columbus, O., May 12.—Earl McCollum, 19, chauffeur, was fatally injured, three others sustained wounds that may cause death and two more were hurt in an automobile accident north of town.

In making a sharp turn in the Dublin pike at Hayden Falls, the large touring car driven by McCollum and containing five passengers left the road, crashed through a fence and hurtled down a 15-foot embankment.

The passengers were: Miss Emma Nye, 25; H. H. Hodges, 30, real estate dealer; Carl Becker, 30; Ralph McCathran and Mrs. L. C. Genger.

Great New Liner Aquitania Slides Off Into Future Home

DOWN she goes, down on her maiden plunge into her native element, and what a splash! She's the great new Cunarder, Aquitania, one of the biggest and best of the great sea leviathans. The picture was taken at her launching at Clydebank, Scotland. True as a die, the big hull slid off the ways and settled evenly in the water. She will carry enough lifeboats for over 2,000 and will be equipped with all the latest wrinkles in transatlantic liner magnificence. The illustration gives a rough idea of the size of her bow. Some of the artistry in the foreground who watched her slide off had worked on her for the last year and over.

MERGER MOVEMENT GAINING SOMEWHAT

LEADERS MEET AND AIR PLANS

Would Reorganize Republican Party on Progressive Lines.

CONFERENCE HELD AT CHICAGO

Question Whether the National Committee Should Be as Inflexible as It Has Been Thoroughly Discussed. Six Senators and Thirty-two Other Republican Leaders, Representing Nine States, Present.

Chicago, May 12.—Proposals to reorganize the Republican party were discussed at a conference here between six Republican United States senators and 32 other Republican leaders, representing nine states.

The immediate subject before the conference was as to what action shall be sought at the meeting of the Republican national committee at Washington, May 24, looking toward reorganizing the party along progressive lines and as to whether there shall be a Republican national convention this year.

Senator A. B. Cummins stated it was merely an informal talk, a sort of round table discussion of what may be done.

Maniac Flashing Stiletto Is Killed

MADMAN KILLED BY COP

Armed With a Stiletto He Had Terrified Women and Children.

New York, May 12.—A crowd of women and children went running out of the entrance to Bronx park. Behind them came a man with a stiletto in his right hand and a large stone in the other. He was shouting incoherently. Policeman Frank Anderson shouldered his way through the crowd. The man with the knife stopped short and yelled at Anderson not to come near. Anderson went right at the man, who lunged a stone at Anderson, but the policeman ducked. The knife swung down at the blue uniform, but Anderson twisted aside and fired. He sent a bullet into the man's forehead, and fired again as the man fell forward, this time striking him in the heart. The man died instantly. He was apparently a maniac.

Fifteen-Thousand-Dollar Blaze.

Cireleville, O., May 12.—When a turpentine tank in the store of the Hamilton Drug company exploded, the fire, which followed, destroyed the Evans and Krimmell block, in which was located the drug store; Colwell & Katz, clothiers; George Groom, tailor; and Lyman Hoffmann, dry goods. The total loss was $15,000.

No Parade in Dayton.

Dayton, O., May 12.—There will be no Memorial day parade in Dayton this year. Committees will be appointed to decorate the soldiers' graves.

Underwood Tariff Bill Has Small Majority

CONCEDE TWO VOTES TO THE OPPOSITION

Democrats in Senate Have Only Two Majority For Tariff Bill.

Washington, May 12.—Democratic leaders in the senate are practically conceding two of their votes, those of the senators from Louisiana to the opposition to the Underwood tariff bill. This gives the Democrats at best a majority of only two votes for the bill, and the loss of one other Democratic senator to the Republican side would make the vote a tie on the passage of the bill. While Democratic leaders may rely on the vote of the vice president to determine a tie, they realize the uncertainty of an effort to pass an important tariff bill with a tie vote. There are several western Democratic senators insisting on a duty on wool, but no one has declared his intention to vote against the bill.

The tariff bill will be referred to the finance committee soon after the senate meets at 2 o'clock tomorrow. There is likely to be sharp debate, but Democratic leaders believe they will be able to have the bill referred to the committee without instruction for public hearings.

Block Gutted by Fire.

Lancaster, O., May 12.—Fire, which entailed a loss of $26,000, destroyed the Metzger building. The furniture store and undertaking establishment of Edward Metzger, the art store of William Metzger and other establishments were burned.

ADMINISTRATION SPARS FOR TIME

Johnson Urged to Withhold Signature From Land Bill.

BRYAN WIRES WILSON'S APPEAL

Would Secure Delay In Order to Allow the Government of the United States an Opportunity to Take Up the Alien Question Diplomatically With Japan — California's Rights Recognized.

Washington, May 12.—The president's final appeal to California to desist from any anti-Japanese legislation at this time was made public here in the form of a telegram sent to Governor Johnson by Secretary of State Bryan.

Secretary Bryan urged the governor to withhold his signature from the alien land bill in order to allow the government of the United States an opportunity to take up the question diplomatically with the government of Japan.

The secretary's message was regarded here solely as an effort on the part of the Wilson administration to gain time by securing delays if possible. In his message to Governor Johnson Mr. Bryan said:

"The president feels justified in expressing again his desire that action on land bills be deferred for this session, and he expresses the desire the more freely because the legislature can be reconvened at any time if the welfare of the state requires it. He is fully alive to the importance of removing any root of discord which may create antagonism between American citizens and the subjects of oriental nations residing here, but he is impelled by a sense of duty to express the opportunity that you see fit to allow the time for diplomatic effort. Nations affected by the proposed law are friendly nations. If a position is taken which is prejudicial to your judgment, the president will be pleased to cooperate in a systematic effort to discover and correct any evils that may exist in connection with land ownership by aliens."

This message was drafted by secretary Bryan in accordance with a decision reached during a conference between himself and President Wilson.

Indications of the president's intention to support California as against Japan in case the alien land bill becomes law were found in the Bryan message by the total absence of anything suggesting that California has acted wrongfully. The message likewise indicated beyond doubt that should the bill become law, the president will notify Japan that she may find her recourse in the federal courts.

Whether Japan would consent to this procedure is not known here, as Ambassador Chinda has expressly refrained from saying anything for publication on this point.

Struck Iceberg Glancing Blow.

Montreal, May 12.—The Furness liner Chiltern Range, from Hull to Montreal, came into port with her bow plates stove in, the result of striking a glancing blow against an iceberg on May 1. The mishap occurred in a dense fog at a time when the steamer was surrounded by icebergs, which were invisible. The steamer slid off the iceberg after striking and lay alongside it, much like a vessel alongside a dock wall.

HOMES THREATENED BY CONFLAGRATION WHICH BURNS BARN

Washington Avenue Scene of Another Fire Saturday Evening.
Department Makes Long Run
Over Oiled Streets and Arrives in Nick of Time.

For a time Saturday evening about four o'clock fire threatened the George Waters home and the Larimer residence property on Washington avenue near the cemetery, and the department made the long run and had streams of water playing upon the flames just in time to prevent both houses from being destroyed.

The fire started in the Waters barn, and it was destroyed before the alarm was turned in. Other small buildings, fences and in fact everything inflammable had about burned up by the time the department arrived, and both residences were on fire.

The long run through the freshly oiled streets was accomplished with difficulty, and both trucks were covered with the substance, requiring a day's work to remove it.

Two lines of hose were quickly laid when the department reached the scene, and within a few minutes the fire was under control and easily extinguished.

While the exact origin of the fire is not known, it is believed that boys had been playing about the barn and dropped a match where it easily ignited the inflammable contents of the structure. However the Waters family did not see any one about the premises previous to the fire.

Several months ago the Larimer property was badly damaged by fire. "It was the second fire of the series of three," said Chief Paul, "and we are now expecting the third at any moment."

Judge James J. Allread of the Second district, Ohio Court of Appeals, who was on the bench in this city Monday, writes the Ohio Department of Agriculture that he will pay the expenses of the boy to Washington who raises the most corn on one acre of ground. Rules of the Ohio Department of Agriculture to govern boys entered in any local or county contest will be considered as entered for this prize trip also. The Second district is composed of the following counties, Franklin, Fayette, Madison, Champaign, Clarke, Greene, Montgomery, Miami, Shelby, Darke and Preble. A little work this summer, may win the honor of going to Washington, at the expense of Judge Allread. Write the Ohio Department of Agriculture, Columbus, for entry blanks and rules. Entries close June 1.

Will Resume Road Work Soon

Contractor Shumway, of Portsmouth, who is one of the builders of the Dayton pike, was in the city Monday, looking after business here, and reports that owing to the inability to secure crushed stone from the quarries approved by the State Highway department, it may be some time after the first of June before work on the Dayton road is resumed.

More than one mile of road remains to build, and just as soon as he can secure the material he will put a force of men on the road and complete it within a few weeks.

The work of building it would have been resumed weeks ago if it had been possible to secure the stone.

Court of Appeals In Session Today

The Fayette county Court of Appeals convened Monday morning for the reviewing of a number of cases carried up from the Common Pleas court.

Judges J. I. Allread, Columbus; H. L. Ferneding, Dayton and A. H. Kunkle, Springfield were on the bench.

Picture Agent Gets in Bad

A divorce was granted Lua Robertson in the Ross county courts Saturday, and it came to light that the woman, formerly Lua Crozier, was formerly of Bainbridge, and that she married Robertson after a short courtship, and that the marriage took place at midnight, the couple driving from Frankfort to Chillicothe where the wedding took place.

Robertson was in the picture-enlarging business, and after marriage had his wife to assist him. All went well until some time ago, when she left him, alleging that he was constantly drinking. She returned to Bainbridge where Robertson recently went and broke up a prayer meeting, trying to induce his wife to return to him.

She was awarded a divorce and $15 per month alimony. Both were known in this county, and Robertson has plied his trade here.

Hard Luck On Pole Vaulters

Two pole vaulters of the local track team, Clarence Boyer and John DeWitt, are both hors de combat, and will not be able to continue the practice work for some time, and probably not at all this year.

DeWitt had the misfortune to sprain an ankle one day last week, laying him up for repairs, and Saturday while Clarence Boyer was completing a nine-foot vault he suffered a dislocated wrist from which he has suffered greatly.

Mother's Day At Christian Church

Mother's Day was observed at the Church of Christ Sunday, by a special program of music and readings.

Every mother was presented with a pure white carnation and a great many of the scholars wore the adopted flower as a token of respect for mother.

The attendance at Sunday school showed a material increase in the past year.

Thinks Horse Has Been Stolen

J. Warren Hicks has asked the police to assist in locating a dark bay mare, three years old which was either stolen from his pasture near Buena Vista Friday night, or has strayed to parts unknown.

Mr. Hicks did not miss the animal until Saturday, and a thorough search has failed to locate it. The mare is five hands high, weighs 1000 pounds and has two white spots on her back caused by saddle sores.

Demand Great For More Houses

At the present time there is a great scarcity of moderate-priced houses for rent in this city, and those who have been seeking houses say that the scarcity of desirable moderate price homes is almost unbelievable.

The greatest demand seems to be for houses of four to seven rooms where rent is reasonable.

A number of such houses will be erected in the city this summer.

Runaway Horse

Sunday a horse owned by Sant Whitton, of Bloomingburg, became frightened in that town, and dashed down the street with the attached buggy swaying wildly from side to side, crashing into a buggy owned by Roy Wilt and wrecking it, and nearly striking other rigs.

After a wild run down the main street the horse dashed up to the barn where it was kept and was captured. It had been left on the street while the occupants of the rig were calling upon a neighbor.

Improvement Badly Needed

One of the enterprises of which the city is justly proud is the Buck green-house.

There is no more delightful, more refining, more ideal place to which the people of Washington can go than to the beautiful greenhouses and floral gardens out on North North street.

Hundreds of our good people take advantage of this opportunity frequently. A great many people ride out in automobiles or in carriages, but the greater number by far, of the visitors, walk out.

It is to be regretted that Washington people cannot avail themselves of this pleasure without wading in mud and water in the winter season and tramping through dust shoe top deep in the summer season.

Just why a suitable walk has not been built out as far as the greenhouses, on one has yet explained satisfactorily to the public, and especially to that portion which obtains so much pleasure from the beauty of the floral gardens.

No city in this land, no matter how large it is can boast of a superior or even a rival to the splendid floral gardens which Washington can show with pride to her visitors.

A private enterprise?

True enough, but it is one of those private enterprises which benefits a community immensely and is a source of enjoyment and pleasure without cost to thousands.

Our public spirited officials and citizens could well afford to see to it that this source of great pleasure and pride to the whole people is made more accessible.

The officials should take it up and see just what can be done.

Certainly conditions can be vastly improved.

A Beautiful Street

Out on Rawlings street they are building a street—an up-to-date street—a street of the kind Washington needs to have many, many more blocks of built.

The people of Washington who have not been out on Rawlings street to see this work as it progresses should go out and look it over.

Every man, whether he owns property or not, should see just how that street is being built and what a beautiful street it is going to be when completed. To see the work on that street is to be convinced that the abutting property owners are getting the worth of their money and that costly as the improvement is, it is a good investment.

It will greatly enhance the value of property in that section, seems to be the almost unanimous opinion. Few men who have looked at the new street come away without being convinced that the property owners on Rawlings street have made a wise move both from the standpoint of comfort and beauty as well as from a financial standpoint.

The street will pay in saving repairs, it will pay also in making Rawlings street property the bon ton residence section of the city in quick time unless other sections hurry up the work of paving the streets.

Washington cannot help being very measurably benefitted by having a street like Rawlings street constructed, and every street that is constructed on the plan of Rawlings street will help the city just that much more.

It makes the whole section which it traverses, a pride to every resident of the city.

Take a walk out North to Rawlings street and watch the contractors at work and the enthusiasm will take hold sure. It can't fail to do so.

No residents of this city need now go away from home to see a good street. It's right here—a part of Washington.

Poetry For Today

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU SAY.

In speaking of a person's faults,
Pray don't forget your own;
Remember those in homes of glass
Should never throw a stone.
If you have nothing else to do
But talk of those who sin,
Tis better to commence at home
And from that point begin.

We have no right to judge a man
Until he's fairly tried;
Should we not like his company,
We know the world is wide,
Some may have faults—and who has not
The old as well as the young;
We may, perhaps, for ought we know,
Have forty to their one.

I'll tell you a better plan,
And find it works full well;
To try my own defects to cure
Before I of others tell;
And though I sometimes hope to be
No worse than some I know,
My own shortcomings bid me let
The faults of others go.

Then let us all when we commence
To slander friend and foe,
Think of the harm one word may do
To those we little know;
Remember curses sometimes, like
Our chickens, "roost at home,"
Don't speak of others' faults until
We have none of our own.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

Recent small advances in the price of linseed oil was due solely to the increased demand for oil in the spring paint trade and further price boosting is looked for. But even at prevailing price of 50 cents a gallon linseed oil is much lower than last season at this time when 75 cents a gallon was quoted. In 1911 as high as 92 cents per gallon, due to poor crops during the preceding season when only 18,000,000 bushels were harvested.

Two new regulations of more than local interest are being tried at the Grand Rapids, Mich., public library. The first regulation abolishes the renewal of books, which are now being issued for a straight four weeks period instead of the usual two weeks with the privilege of renewal at the end of that time. The second regulation increases the number of books that may be drawn at one time on a regular card from two to four, provided that not more than two are juvenile books and but one a work of fiction.

Recently at the Royal Dublin cattle show, a great event in Ireland, a bull was sold to go to the Argentine Republic for the sum of $5200, and two others for $1200 and $3400, record prices for Dublin. Cattle men in attendance at the show from Argentine bought a large per cent of the best offerings made.

The county of Riverside, in California, has been connected with the new mill in this town, has sold his interest in it to Mr. Hagely, and the business is now conducted by the firm of Hagely and Holden. They are now delivering flour, meal, etc., to their customers by their express wagon.

Rural Education Backward

By A. C. MONAHAN of the United States Bureau of Education

IT is probably true that the public schools, both urban and rural, have made considerable progress, but the marked progress has been confined almost wholly to the city and town.

DURING THE PAST THREE DECADES THE AMERICAN RURAL SCHOOL HAS IN MOST STATES MADE LITTLE PROGRESS EXCEPT THAT RESULTING FROM THE ACTIVITIES OF THE PAST TEN YEARS.

Opportunities for education in most of the rural sections of the United States are EXCEEDINGLY MEAGER in comparison with the opportunities offered in cities.

Inez H. Gillmore, Authoress, Now an Ardent Suffragist

AMONG the ardent suffragists who are lending their time and talents to the cause for women's rights in this country is Mrs. Inez Hays Gillmore, the authoress. She is best known to her Martin stories of "The Home Life." Her fame is not confined to these tales, however, for she has contributed largely to the magazines and has written several books. She was born in 1860, and her parents moved to Boston when she was an infant. She was educated in the public schools and in the elite private school at the Metropolitan Hotel, New York, at which Colonel Roosevelt agreed to do honor to the cause of woman suffrage.

Presbyterian Body Recognizes Wish of Seminary To Be Independent.
New York, May 12.—There is a feeling that the long standing difference between the Presbyterian general assembly and the Union Theological seminary will not be settled at this week's meeting of the assembly in Atlanta. In a statement the Union seminary authorities make it plain that they do not care to resume close official relation with the Presbyterian church. This statement, to be read at Atlanta, has already been presented in substance to the committee of the assembly which has been conferring with representatives of Union seminary. "It is clear," said a member of the assembly committee, "that the seminary wishes to be independent, and I do not believe that the Presbyterian general assembly will desire to try coercion."

Merger Movement Gaining Somewhat

As the two great parties in the party are negotiating to come into closer union.

Provided over by Senator William of Illinois, the discussion was participated in by Senators Cummings of Iowa, William E. Borah of Idaho, C. I. Crawford of South Dakota, A. J. Gronna of North Dakota, William S. Kenyon of Iowa, Congressman E. A. Hayes of California, Congressman J. W. Good of Iowa and many members of state legislatures.

Senator Sherman gave out a synopsis of the discussion.

"We emphasized," he said, "whether the national committee should be as inflexible in character as it had been. The feeling was that the new committee should be amenable to public opinion and keep pace with what is going on. There was no definite action on the question of calling a national convention this year. A call, of course, would have to come from the national committee. The question then arose as to whether the committee would issue a call, and we felt that the committee would yield to the sentiment of Republicans generally on that point as last year's election was a pretty positive indicator that radical changes should be made."

We agreed that southern representation in the convention should be cut down according to the strength of the party in each southern state.

"Presidential primaries were not considered, but I think we are all agreed as being in favor of them. Our whole conference was merely informal, permitting us a free and easy interchange of views as to ways and means of reorganizing the party, as some of us progressive Republicans see it."

tographs were received from all counties of the state, and the committee chose Miss De Valasco.

STEFANSSON NOW READY FOR START

Explorer Will Leave In June
For Long Arctic Stay.

WILL REMAIN FOUR YEARS.

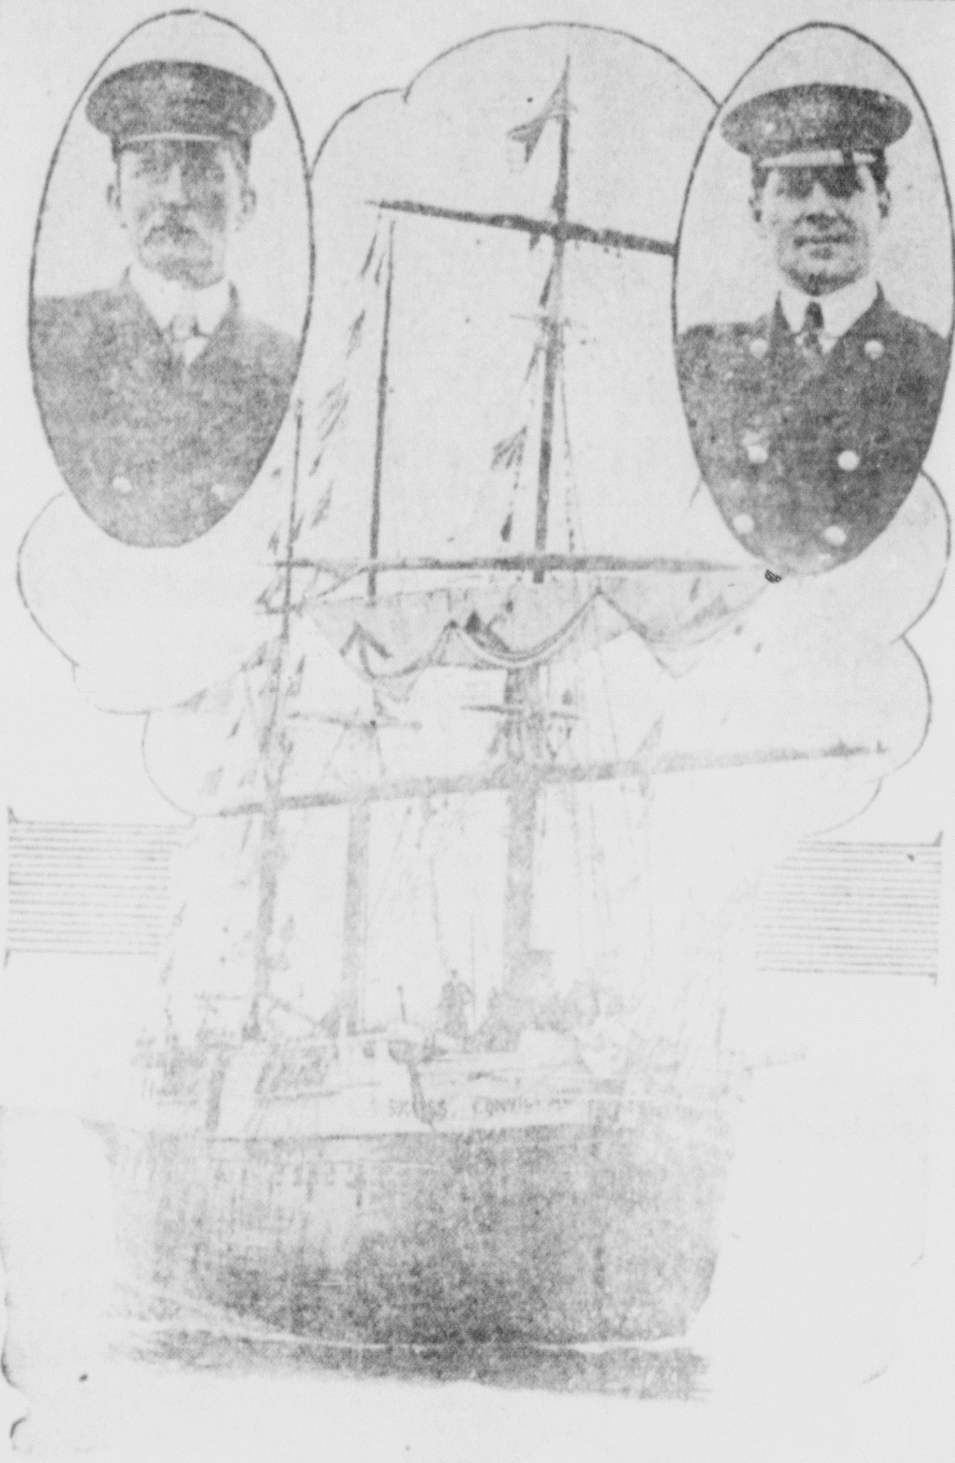

Party Will Study Blind Eskimos and Gather Scientific and Geographical Data About Arctic Sea and Vast Unexplored Regions Between Bering Strait and the North Pole.

New York—Vilhjalmur Stefansson, who discovered the blind Eskimos, in announcing his plans for his coming four year expedition in the north, said that it would be the party's object to gather geographical and scientific data about the vast unexplored territory between Bering Strait and the north pole and between the western border of the arctic archipelago and the known open sea north of Siberia.

"We shall start from the navy yard at Esquimaux, Victoria, for Bering Strait, in the first week of June, in the steam whaler Kariak, of 217 tons, proceeding east along the north coast of Alaska," he said. "The expedition, planned as a private American expedition, has been taken over by the Canadian government, which has enabled us to double its size."

Old British Convict Ship Once a Terrible "Hell Hole"

Photos by American Press Association.

THIS "hell hole" of a ship gives one the shivers when its gruesome history is recalled. It's the old British convict ship Success, built nearly a century and a quarter ago, and it's now being sailed from port to port around the world by Captain D. A. Smith, right, and Captain E. W. Nottingham as a museum. In this old hulk in the early part of the last century convicts were shipped from England to Australia, then a six months voyage. Scores died on the way in the stifling hole of the vessel, a deathtrap that proved worse in some respects than the "black hole" of Calcutta. Huddled together in small cells, dark and foul, the poor victims died and were cast into the sea, their loss apparently of small concern to the authorities.

Heavy Frost Causes Damage

The unseasonable weather of Saturday night resulted in a very heavy frost Sunday morning, and another frost of less severity Monday night.

The one of Saturday night was general, and did much damage to the more tender crops in the county, and those who were so unfortunate as to have potatoes, beans, and corn above ground, may have to plant again in order to secure a crop. The grape crop is believed to have been almost entirely destroyed.

Many persons report heavy loss, and it is feared that the fruit trees did not escape the blighting weather. Ice a quarter of an inch in thickness was reported in many places, while those who were up early found a coat of frost on the grass, wheat, clover and the like.

The extent of the damage has not yet become apparent, but the loss in Fayette county may be much heavier than at first anticipated.

DEATHS

BAINTER

James Bainter, aged 50 years, died Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at his home in Bloomingburg. Funeral Tuesday at 2 p. m., at the M. E. church in Bloomingburg. Burial in Bloomingburg cemetery.

The great calamity in Omaha was quickly overshadowed by the terribly disastrous floods in Ohio. From suffering and sickness from colds and exposure, resulted which Edward Honey and his compound helped to alleviate. L. Poole, 2217 California St., Omaha, writes: "My daughter had a severe cough and cold but Poole's Honey and Compound knocked it out in no time. My wife would not keep home without it. We have used it for years, always with good results." Trackman and Tannery.

Sunday School Picnic Enjoyed

Following Sunday school and the regular preaching services at Oak Chapel in eastern Fayette, Sunday, a picnic dinner and social hour was enjoyed by those in attendance, all having taken baskets and boxes heaped with good things to eat, so that when the tables were spread there was an abundance for all and much left untouched.

It was a very pleasurable event, even if the weather man did by his coolness prevent spreading the tables under the stately trees in the church yard.

Two zoologists engaged are Henri Bouchat, a Frenchman, a specialist in American archeology and paleontology, and Dr. Edward Jones, who is now on his way from New Zealand. Dr. Fritz Johnson, a Dane, with an as zoologist. The second in command will be Dr. R. M. Anderson of the American Museum of Natural History. The skipper of the Kariak will be Captain C. T. Pedersen, a whaler of twenty years' experience, who will pick a crew of fourteen of officers' hands.

My experience shows that explorers had best live off the country. In the north as land has been discovered there is plenty of bear, caribou, musk ox, seal and walrus. The provisions taken will be grains, flaxseed and oats, and only dried fruit.

One of the big things will be the study of the blind Eskimos, and we are going to ascertain the depth of the arctic sea, character of its bottom, direction and speed of its currents, temperature of the water, its salinity and its vegetable and animal life.

Mr. Stefansson expects to be gone four years, but may in summer send the ship back to Esquimaux. Whether the territory to be explored is all new open sea, a continent or a series of islands is one of the few remaining mysteries of the world today, according to the explorer.

The thirteen-ton schooner "Fanny Bear" may be used as an auxiliary for establishing a base on Victoria Island in the arctic, for discovering metals and studying tribes. If the Kariak should come across land the party may establish a base upon it.

Mr. Stefansson, the child of Icelandic parents, was born at Winnipeg in 1878, was graduated from the University of Iowa with Dr. Anderson in 1900, and afterward became a professor of anthropology at Harvard. In 1908 he went with Dr. Anderson to the arctic, spent four years there and discovered the blind Eskimos, who, he says, cannot be descendants of whalers or survivors of the Franklin expedition.

DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS

IT IS POSSIBLE many times by acting promptly to avoid disappointment—and no one enjoys being disappointed.

 But that is just what will happen to very many residents of this city and county in the event that they continue neglecting to give their order for one of the New Fayette County Directories now being compiled.

Enough of these valuable books will be printed to fill all orders received—disappointment will be the lot of those who do not act in time.

The Directory will contain full and accurate information concerning everyone of the people residing in the county who is 16 years of age or over. This mine of information is something everyone will want and should have. Farmers, Business and Professional Men, Lawyers, Doctors, Contractors, Laborers and all will daily find uses for such a book, but once the edition is exhausted it will be impossible to get one at any price.

Usually Directories containing only the names and abridged information concerning the citizens of Washington and the larger towns of the county, together with a list of taxpayers outside, costs from $3.50 to $4.00.

This book will make a clean sweep. None will be missed. The aim is to enumerate EVERY person in the whole county who is 16 years of age or over.

As to the price it is nothing in comparison. $1.50 pays for one of these Directories, and the person paying the price will receive paid up subscription either to The Ohio State Register or Daily Herald to the value of $1.00. In no other way can the Directories be bought. This remarkably low price is due to efforts of this company to bring about the largest possible distribution of a work that should be in every office, store, home

Do not delay longer. Give your order to the enumerators or come or send direct to this office.
